Much has been spoken and written recently about the unfairness of employees having to work on a zero hours contract.

Does Ryedale District Council have any members of staff on a zero hours contract?

From Cllr Wainwright to the Leader of Council

At the Full Council Meeting on September 5th in your Leader's statement you said;

It is my intention that we should give as much assistance to the Ryedale Community and Leisure Centre (RCLC) as reasonably possible to enable them to put together a successful bid to buy the building.

What assistance has been given to the RCLC in their attempt to buy the club?

From Cllr Clark to the Chair of Council

Could you please update Council on the Farndale evictions. How is your 'hard nosed' campaign going?

From Cllr Clark to the Chair of Planning

Have you reconsidered your position as Chair of the Planning Committee?

From Cllr Clark to the Chair of Policy

Could you please inform Council of what support RDC has given to RCLC since the 5th September 2013?

From Cllr Wainwright to the Leader of Council

We must accept that Local Government at a District level is always changing and that small Councils such as ours need to adapt to change.

I am hoping to stand for the last time at the election for the Hovingham Ward at the Local elections in 2015. As the Leader of the Council what strategies are you adopting to ensure that Ryedale District Council survives until 2019 and beyond?
