Item Title	Doing what matters for Ryedale - Ward Planning Pilot Update
Summary	An update was given by Councillor Fiona Farnell, Amotherby Ward and Janet Waggott, Chief Executive, RDC. The update included the progress made on the Amotherby Ward pilot. Representatives expressed positive comments on the pilot and joint working. Janet reminded representatives that the pilots were to look at doing things more efficiently and all together what matters for that area. Concentrating on the three questions, is it legal, is it affordable and does it make common sense? when looking at who is best placed to provide a service. The update also covered the Helmsley Town Team pilot

	which is working very well with representatives involved from all stakeholders and positive feedback from the outcomes achieved to date. An action plan is being progressed and quarterly meetings planned in diaries. Point of contact for any enquiries is Beckie Bennett email: beckie.bennett@ryedale.gov.uk

Item Title	Questions and Comments from the floor
Summary	A representative expressed concern regarding possible election charges and asked that, if RDC started to charge back the cost to Parishes that at least two years notice could be given, to allow Parish Councils time to plan and budget for the expenditure. Beckie Bennett explained that there are no plans currently for RDC to recharge parishes for elections however this could not be ruled out indefinitely as the RDC does need to consider future potential income maximisation opportunities. It was acknowledged that if this is to be explored further sufficient notice and liaison with parishes would be required. There were no further questions.
